

Southwest High School
Title 1 Parent Involvement Policy 2018-2019

Southwest High School has jointly developed with and distributed to parents of participating students the following written Title I parental involvement policy. The policy has been agreed on by parents of Title I students and describes the means for carrying out the following Title I parental involvement requirements:

(Title I Parental Involvement, 20 USC 6318[a]-[f])

Policy Involvement

Southwest High School carries out the following legal requirements in the manner described below:

1. Convene annual meetings to inform parents of participating students of the requirements of Title I and their rights to be involved
 - Welcome-Home-To-Southwest- a meeting for incoming freshmen with their Link Crew mentors, explaining curriculum, assessments and proficiency levels students are expected to meet (parents are welcomed)
 - Back-To-School Orientation- an informational meeting for all parents at the beginning of the school year; its purpose is to assist parents in understanding academic content, standards and assessments and to provide a platform for communication throughout the year.
 - AVID Parent Meetings- Informational meetings for parents of English Language Learner Students. The purpose is to assist parents in understanding academic content, services offered to students, and to ensure parents stay connected throughout the year.
 - Annual Title 1 meeting- an informational meeting to inform parents of all services made available by categorical programs and how they may contribute as equal partners, with a focus on parents of 9th grade students.
 - Higher Education meetings- a series of meetings to inform parents and students on graduation requirements and college entrance requirements
 - Financial Aid Meetings- a series of meetings for juniors and seniors and their parents to provide them with information about financial aid, scholarships and college applications
 - Coffee with the Counselors- a meeting for parents to meet the counselors and ask any questions regarding any issues
 - All tenth grade parents are invited to attend a conference with their student and counselor to prepare a student plan for graduation
 - Annual IB/AP Course informational meetings offered for parents and students.
2. Offer a flexible number of meetings

Meetings are offered on different days of the week and at different times in the evening and mornings. Meeting times are determined by the parent group at their first meeting.
3. Involve parents of participating students in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of its Title I programs and Title I parental involvement policy*

All meetings are announced in the Online Newsletter and via Auto-dialer. The School Site Council meets on a monthly basis.
4. Provide parents of participating students with timely information about Title I programs

Parents are informed via Newsletter, letters home, the school website, at meetings, the Blackboard Connect phone system, the Parent Portal, and on the school Marquee.
5. Provide parents of participating students with an explanation of the curriculum, academic assessment, and proficiency levels students are expected to meet.

Parents are informed during the listed meetings above and also with their annual parent-student counselor meeting.

6. Provide parents of participating students, if requested, with opportunities for regular meetings to participate in decisions relating to the education of their children.

All parents are invited to attend all meetings by special invitation in the mail, through the student bulletin and home telephone calls in English and in Spanish.

The School Site Council (SSC) is a group of parents, students, classified employees and teachers. The SSC is an organization that is elected by their peers to work with the principal to create a plan for school improvement.

The English Language Acquisition Committee (ELAC) is a group of parents that work with the Supervisor of Instruction to make sure that the school has programs in place to provide English Learners with the necessary opportunities to graduate.

If a school has in place a process for involving parents in the joint planning and design of the school's programs, the school may use that process, if such process includes an adequate representation of parents of participating children. (20 USC 6318[c][3])*

Shared Responsibilities for Increasing Student Academic Achievement

Southwest High School has jointly developed with and distributed to parents of participating students a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the California content standards. The compact describes the following items in addition to items added by parents of Title I students. (A copy of the compact is attached to this policy.)

1. The school's responsibility to provide rigorous-quality curriculum and instruction
2. The parents' responsibility to support their children's learning
3. The importance of ongoing communication between parents and teachers through, at a minimum, annual conferences, reports on student progress, access to staff, and opportunities to volunteer and participate in and observe the educational program

Building Capacity for Involvement

To ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among Southwest High School, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement, SHS carries out the following legal requirements in the manner described below:
